

External measurements of the Scottish Terrier

Measure on the dogs standing in show stack position with the hind legs placed behind the level of the tail.

- Weight
- Height at the withers measured from the ground to the dorsum of the processus spinosus of the first thoracic vertebrae.
- Body length measured from the most cranial point of the articuli humeroscapularis to the tuber isciadicum.

